Need help paying for YEZTUGO? Gilead may be able to help

The cost of YEZTUGO depends on your insurance and financial needs. If your healthcare provider has already determined that YEZTUGO is right for you, then the Gilead Advancing Access[®] program is committed to helping you afford your medication. For example, eligible commercially insured patients may pay as low as a $0 co-pay.* But whether you are insured, uninsured, or underinsured, Advancing Access is available to help you.

If you have commercial insurance

The Gilead Advancing Access co-pay savings card might help you save. If you are eligible, the co-pay savings card covers up to $8,000 in co-pays per year with no monthly limit for YEZTUGO. For some people, that could mean paying as low as a $0 co-pay. For full terms and conditions, visit www.gileadadvancingaccess.com/copay-coupon-card.

If you have government insurance

If you are enrolled in a government healthcare program (such as Medicare Part D, Medicaid, TRICARE, or VA), you are not eligible for the Gilead Advancing Access co-pay savings card program. However, Gilead Advancing Access may be able to help provide information about financial support through alternative sources of funding.

If you do not have insurance

You may be able to receive YEZTUGO free of charge* if you qualify for the Medication Assistance Program. Gilead Advancing Access can help you determine if you are qualified for this program, or help you find alternative coverage options if you are not.
